Executive Proclamation

State of South Dakota

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, George William Clifton has been a loyal citizen of the State of South Dakota since his birth on October 18, 1925, at Wessington Springs, South Dakota; and,

WHEREAS, George William Clifton has had a long and distinguished career, having served one year in the U.S. Army, nine years as a pioneer in bringing power to rural areas by stringing R.E.A. lines across the state, ten years of full-time employment and continuous part-time employment at the Huron airport; and

WHEREAS, After twenty and one quarter years of dedicated service to State Radio Communications, and having reached the age of sixty-two, George has retired from employment; and,

WHEREAS, It is fitting and proper for the Governor to make note of the milestones in the lives of exemplary South Dakotans:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim October 23, 1987, as in South Dakota.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-Fourth Day of September, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Seven

GEORGE S. MICKELSON, GOVERNOR

ATTEST:

JOYCE HAZELTINE, SECRETARY OF STATE
